

K-Love supports wholesome values and has a positive and encouraging impact on communities across the USA.

This country needs more stations like this one. It would be a loss to the community and to the nation. We don't need more of what we already have.